BACKGROUND AND MANDATE

The Transport Education and Training Authority is striving to build a system where skills production and development respond to the socio-economic needs of our country and its labour market. Such high-quality skills will in turn enhance investment and improve service delivery

The TETA cordially invites all its Stakeholders to attend the Discretionary Grants virtual roadshow scheduled to take place on 17 November 2023.

Who should attend the roadshows?

- Skills Development Facilitators (SDFs) operating within the transport sub sectors.
- Representatives of NGO, CBOs CBCs, Non-Levy Paying Enterprises and Associations in the transport sector as per the DG advert.
- Companies that are interested in implementing TETA scope programmes.
- Accredited Skills development providers
- Trade Unions in the transport sector
- Public/Private Skills Development Providers (HEI, TVETs and CET colleges)

Topics to be discussed for the day are as follows:

1. DG Process
2. Funding Framework
3. DG application - Manual Process
