INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME FOR WOMEN (IEDPW) NOMINATION FORM

The International Executive Development Programmes is designed to develop impactful and responsible female leaders for the Transport Sector in South Africa. This fully-funded programme exposes high potential leaders to leading faculty as well as specially crafted engagements and experiences.

Delegates are required to apply their learnings to identified sectoral challenges in support of TETA's goal to foster economic development and job creation. The programme which is the SETA's contribution to transforming the transport sector, also builds a network of empowered leaders that can leverage each other's experiences to improve their own companies' strategic sustainability while responding to urgent economic and social challenges.

The accredited programme, which incorporates local and international in-market immersions, will require the commitment of personal time as well as time away from home and office whilst on the programme. A significant amount of time will also be devoted to after-hours syndicate work.
